The Law of the Two Feet

Each one has two feet – be prepared to use them!

Responsibility for a successful outcome resides with exactly one person – YOU!

person – YOU!

You – and you alone – must take responsibility to use your feet, and move to a new place where you can make a difference!

The Marketplace

In human history people have met here to exchange stories and discuss issues so that the marketplace has functioned as a setting where much of the culture of a village has been generated.

What to do?

- Go around the ICT MARKETPLACE. Engage and converse with those in-charge. Try your hand in using the ICT tools.
- After a while, you will write your answer to the QUESTION on an idea card. Try to be specific. Write in big, bold letters. Then tape your idea card on your chest.
- FOLLOW THE LAW OF THE 2 FEET. Find ideas that resonate with yours. Engage each other in conversation. Form conversation circles and find a place for your group.
- Capture the highlights of your conversations on an easel sheet.
