

Partnership for Social Accountability Network - Mongolia

Social Accountability Learning-in-Action Program

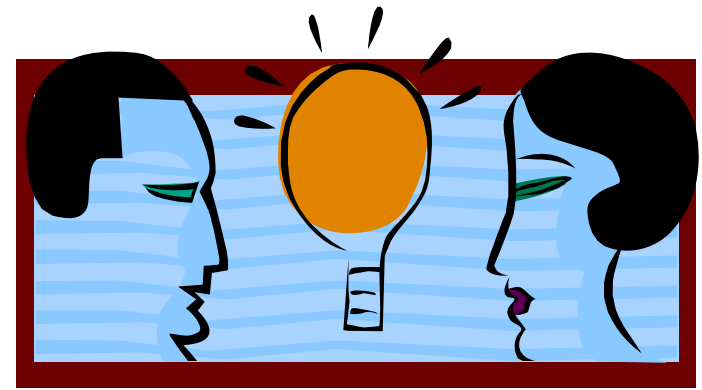

Understanding good governance

15 November 2010

Ulaanbaatar Hotel

Mongolia

Learning agenda

- Shared appreciation of:
 - What is good governance?
 - Why is it important to our work?
- Shared picture of governance context:
 - Gains in terms of achieving good governance
 - Issues and challenges
- Good governance and social accountability

Partnership for Social Accountability Network - Mongolia

Social Accountability Learning-in-Action Program

Session flow

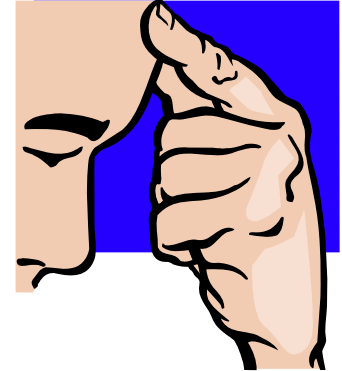

- Individual reflection and group discussion (1.5 hours)
- Plenary reporting and sharing (30 minutes)
- INPUT: Good governance in Mongolia (15 minutes)
- Plenary processing and discussion (45 minutes)

Activity

Personal reflection: (15 minutes)

- What to you is good governance?
- How is it important to your work?

Activity

Group work:

- Share results of personal reflection (20 minutes)
- Identify gains and issues in achieving good governance in Mongolia (30 minutes)
- Prepare diagram to show results (10 minutes)
 - Group's idea of good governance and its importance
 - Gains and challenges in achieving GG in Mongolia

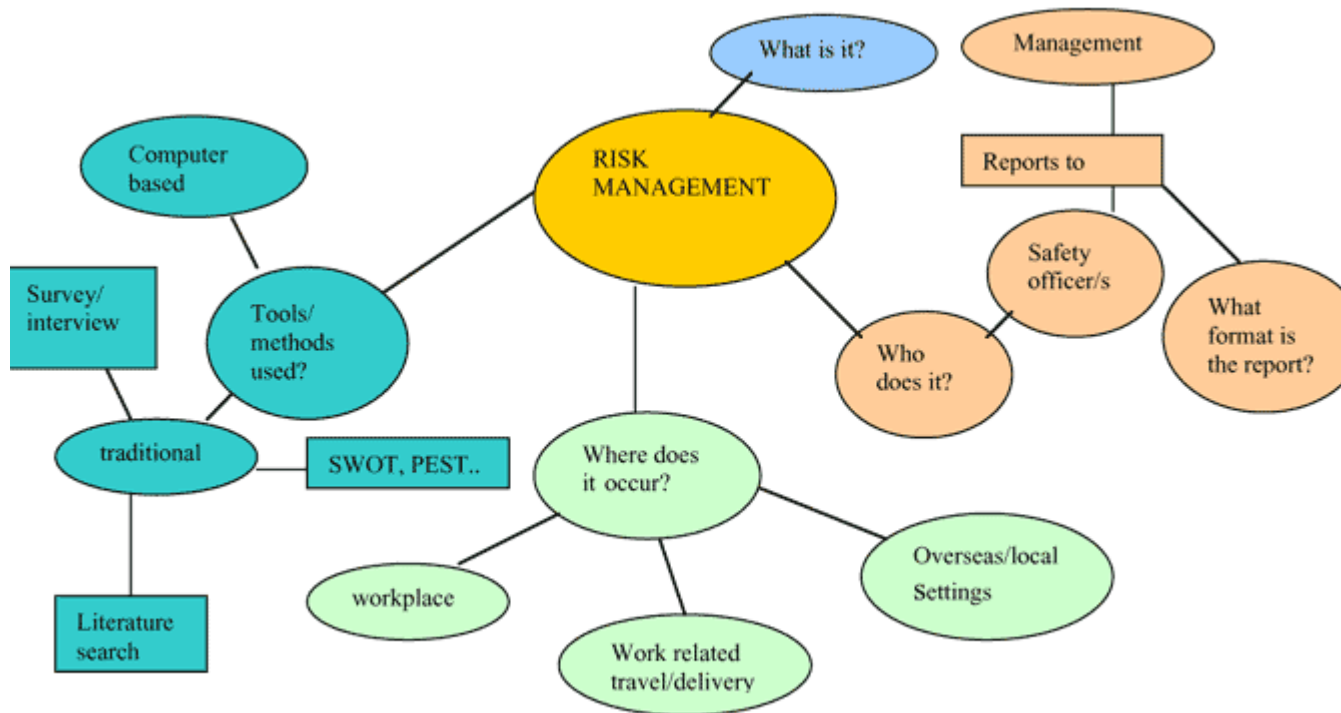

Partnership for Social Accountability Network - Mongolia

Social Accountability Learning-in-Action Program

Sample of diagram

The Learning Centre, The University of New South Wales • <http://www.lc.unsw.edu.au>

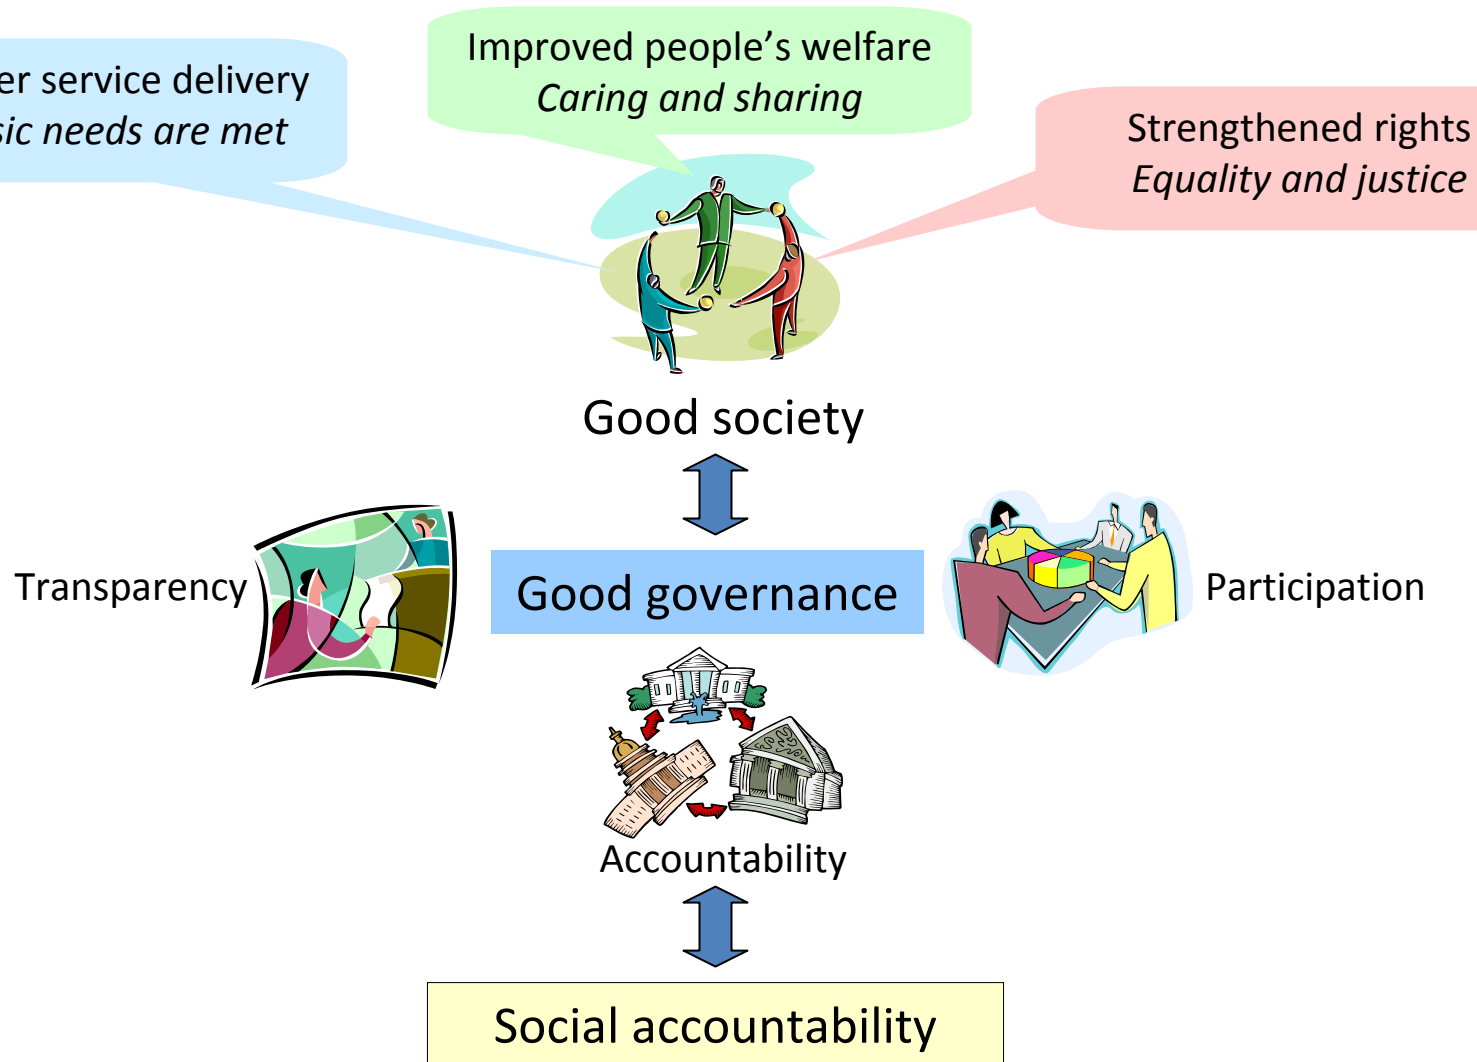

Partnership for Social Accountability Network - Mongolia

Social Accountability Learning-in-Action Program

Good governance and social accountability

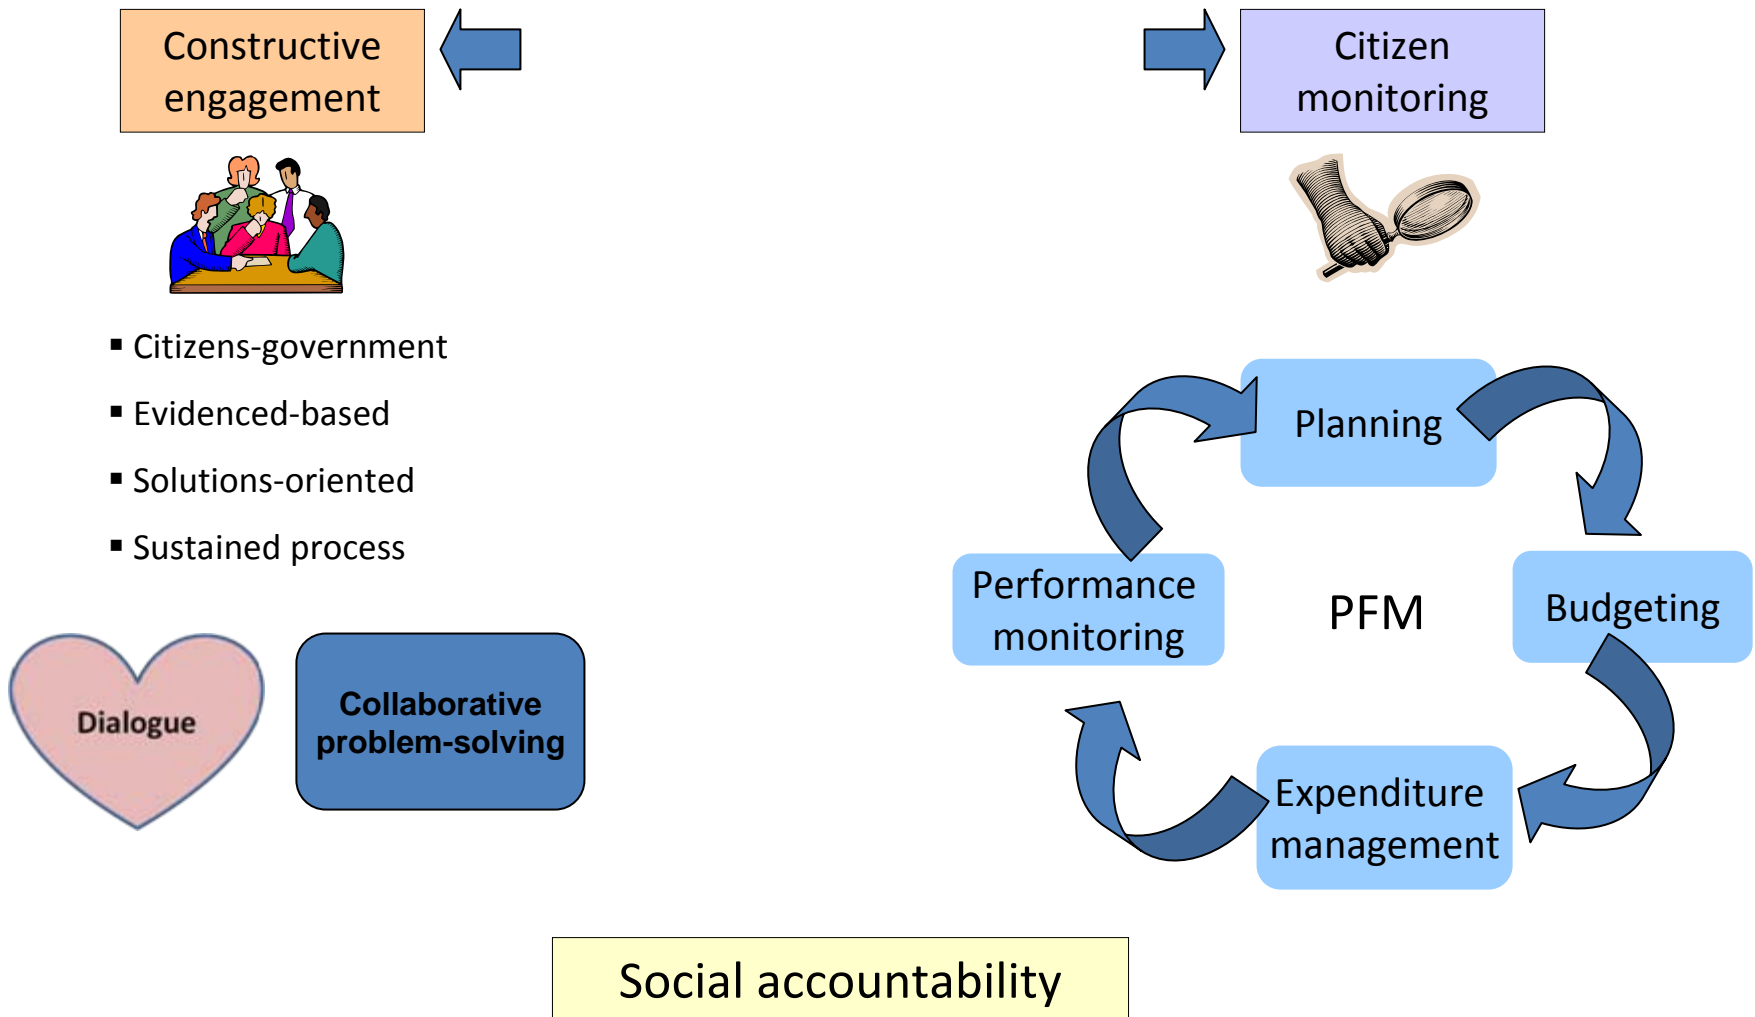

Partnership for Social Accountability Network - Mongolia

Social Accountability Learning-in-Action Program

Social accountability: two key operating concepts

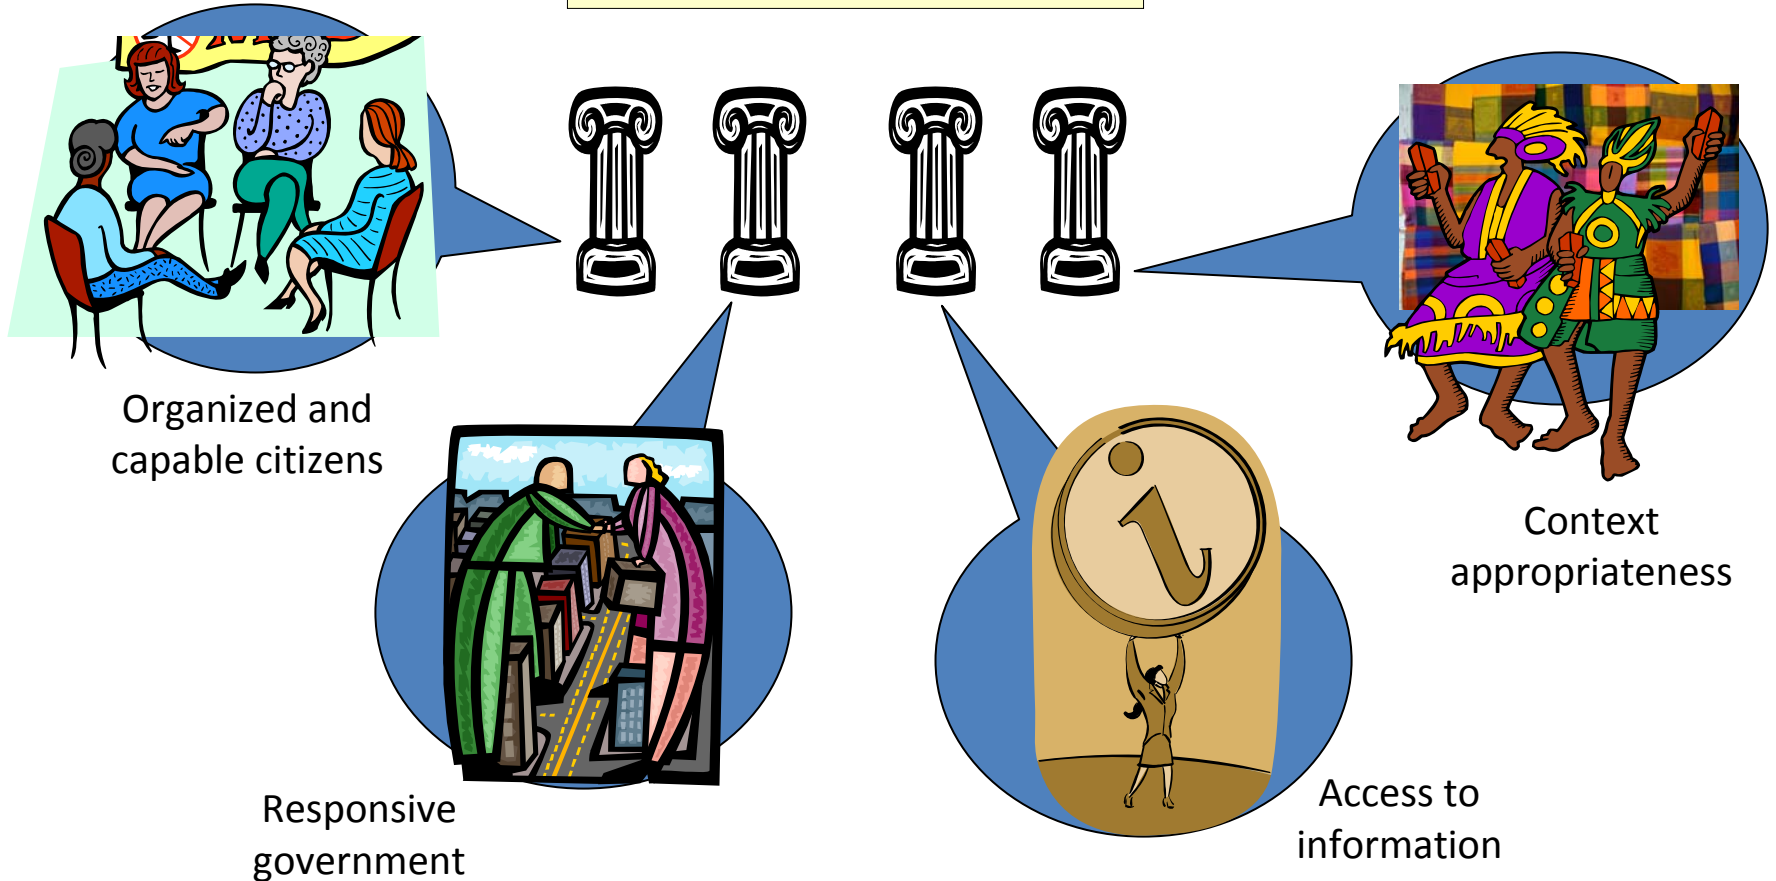

Partnership for Social Accountability Network - Mongolia

Social Accountability Learning-in-Action Program

Enabling environment for social accountability:

Social accountability

Partnership for Social Accountability Network - Mongolia

Social Accountability Learning-in-Action Program

